Q.2

Think about what stories you might know about God and food in the Bible, such as God delivering manna to the Israelites in Exodus, or the many meals that Jesus ate with the marginalized throughout the gospels. What do you think God's priorities are when it comes to food?

Q.3

James 5:7 tells us to be patient like a farmer waiting for a crop. What evidence of patience is there on your plate today? Who had to wait on God for your meal to be created? How does this reminder of patience bring value to the areas where we are waiting on God to move?
